

Return of Class 1 Agricultural Delegations in NSW – Road Manager Information Sheet

The National Heavy Vehicle Regulator (NHVR) coordinates a range of access applications from start to finish. This involves liaising directly with Road Managers, both state and territory road authorities and local governments, to manage applications and issue permits.

This document provides information about the return of the New South Wales Class 1 Agricultural Delegations and what changes will occur as a result.

Background

In February 2014, the NHVR delegated permit authority to the Chief Executive of each participating state and territory governments. The implementation of delegation applied to mass or dimension exemptions (permits) for roads within the state or territory government's physical boundary. Within NSW, delegation was also made to local councils for intrastate Class 1 applications.

The NHVR is working towards returning the delegation and fully transitioning the heavy vehicle road access permit process to the regulator. Tasmania, South Australia, ACT, and Victoria have already completed the transition as well as Class 3 delegations in New South Wales.

What will change?

Application process

The NHVR is implementing a staged approach, only returning the NSW Class 1 Agricultural functions from the 30 of April 2019.

From then, transport operators will need to submit all Class 1 Agricultural heavy vehicle road access permits to the NHVR via the NHVR Portal.

The NHVR will then process the applications, and seek consent from Road Manager(s) using the NHVR Portal.

Once a decision is received from the Road Manager(s), the NHVR will then issue the permit to the operator using the NHVR Portal.

Previous applications

Class 1 Agricultural permit applications submitted directly to Road Manager(s) within NSW, prior to the 30 of April 2019, will continue to be processed and completed directly.

The NHVR is unable to accept or transfer applications that are not within the NHVR Portal.

Next Steps

The regulator is continuing to work towards the return of the remaining Class 1 delegation categories by the end of 2019, including Special Purpose Vehicles (SPV) and Oversize and Overmass (OSOM) vehicles.

In the interim, a Council is still able to process and issue SPV and OSOM permits directly to customers as per current procedures.

Benefits

The return of New South Wales Class 1 delegations will mean that all permit applications will be processed through one system. The NHVR is continuing to improve the access permit process with the online NHVR Portal.

Some of the key benefits of the NHVR Road Manager Portal include:

- A consistent approach to processes across jurisdictions
- All council applications will be stored in one place
- Ability to view all of the council's current and previous application requests (since Oct 2017) via the case tracker
- Integrated route planner
- Reporting abilities on all application requests from October 2017 onwards
- Conditions library reduces the time needed to impose conditions.

FAQ's

Is New South Wales the first state to return this function to the NHVR?

No, Tasmania, South Australia, Australian Capital Territory, and Victoria have already transitioned their permit processing to the NHVR. Class 3 delegations in New South Wales were also returned in December 2018.

Will I be able to access council issued Agricultural permits in the Portal?

Agricultural permits that have been issued by the NSW State Authority or Local council will not be stored or accessed via the NHVR Portal. The NHVR Portal will only record the permits issued by the NHVR.

Can I transfer my outstanding Agricultural applications to the NHVR for processing?

No, unfortunately, all applications that were submitted directly to the Road Manager(s), prior to the 30 of April 2019, must continue to be processed and completed by the Road Manager(s). Therefore these applications will not be viewed or processed via the NHVR Portal.

Are applicant's still able to apply to Council direct for Class 1 SPV and OSOM permits?

Yes, until the return of these delegations, NSW councils will still hold delegate authority to issue Class 1 SPV and OSOM heavy vehicle permits directly to customers.

Will I still be able to provide an applicant with a Council Clearance Authority Letter?

Yes, NSW council's will still be able to supply an applicant with a Council Clearance Authority Letter. This will mean that once the customer submits their application to the NHVR with a valid clearance letter attached, additional council consent will not be sought and a permit can be issued.
