This page contains a list of Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) that have been approved by the NHVR to deliver and assess fatigue management courses TLIF0005 - Apply a fatigue risk management system (<https://training.gov.au/Training/Details/TLIF0005>) and TLIF0006 - Administer a fatigue risk management system (<https://training.gov.au/Training/Details/TLIF0006>) for NHVAS accreditation purposes. The list will be regularly updated to include RTOs that have also been endorsed to deliver training by virtual means where required.

If you are an RTO seeking to deliver TLIF0005 and TLIF0006 for NHVAS accreditation purposes, please read the Fatigue units of competency - RTO guide (PDF, 228KB) (<https://www.nhvr.gov.au/files/201712-0749-fatigue-units-of-competency-rto-guide.pdf>) and complete the NHVR approved Registered Training Organisation application form (PDF, 169KB) (<https://www.nhvr.gov.au/files/201710-1-0100-nhvr-approved-rto.pdf>).

New fatigue units of competency

On 1 July 2018 new fatigue units of competency came into effect.

The new fatigue units of competency provide drivers, schedulers, supervisors and managers with information critical to effectively manage the risk of fatigue in road transport operations.

The new fatigue units are:

- TLIF0005 - Apply a fatigue risk management system (replaces unit TLIF2010)
- TLIF0006 - Administer a fatigue risk management system (replaces unit TLIF3063)

All drivers or schedulers who are currently operating under a BFM or AFM accreditation do not need to complete the new fatigue units. Courses completed prior to 1 July 2018 that will continue to be recognised are:

Drivers	Schedulers
TLIF1007C	TLIF6307A
TLIF2010A	TLIF3063A
TLIF2010	TLIF3063

A detailed comparison between the old and the new fatigue units of competency can be found at Training in fatigue risk management \(https://www.nhvr.gov.au/safety-accreditation-compliance/fatigue-management/training-in-fatigue-risk-management\).
